

IMPROVING NUTRITION IN CRITICALLY ILL CHILDREN WORKSHOP

Objectives: This exciting and innovative workshop is focused on reviewing practice and developing science supporting improving nutrition in Pediatric Critical Care. Expert PICU clinicians and researchers in the field will present state-of-the-art lectures summarizing.

Place: Congress Center, Hall 300-302

Saturday, June 9, 2018

09:00 - 15:30

Hall 300 -302

	Chair: Nilesh Mehta (USA)
	Chair: Lyvonne Tume (United Kingdom)
09:00	The burden of pediatric malnutrition in the PICU Chengsi Ong (Singapore)
09:30	Feeding the infant with congenital heart disease Lyvonne Tume (United Kingdom)
10:00	Feeding the surgical, burns and trauma patient Nilesh Mehta (USA)
10:30	Coffee break
11:00	Feeding the oncology patient and BMT Yara Maria Franco Moreno (Brazil)
11:30	Feeding the child with neurological disease: Traumatic brain injury, CP, NMD Frederic Valla (France)
12:00	Feeding the child with severe hepatic and renal failure Akash Deep (United Kingdom)
12:30	Feeding the obese child Bodil Larsen (Canada)
13:00	The 2017 ASPEN guidelines an update Nilesh Mehta (USA)
13:30	Lunch Break
14:30	Prioritizing Topics for Nutrition Research in Pediatric Critical care: an interactive discussion Lyvonne Tume (United Kingdom)
14:30	Prioritizing Topics for Nutrition Research in Pediatric Critical care: an interactive discussion Nilesh Mehta (USA)
14:30	Prioritizing Topics for Nutrition Research in Pediatric Critical care: an interactive discussion Chengsi Ong (Singapore)